

Robert J Fischbach
1207 Gettysburg Dr
Bloomington IL 61704

Born in Waterloo, Iowa 1949
Graduate of Columbus High School, Waterloo, IA.
Graduate of University of Northern Iowa in Jan 1974, Cedar Falls, IA.
B.A. Degree in Accounting

Related Work experience:

1974 to 1977 Staff accountant at Frendel & Co (Public Accounting Firm) Osceola IA.

Prepare Monthly, Quarterly, Annual financial Statements. Federal & State tax returns for small business and individuals. Specialized in car dealerships, farm implement dealers, grain elevators and lumber yards.

1977 to 1980 Financial Manager, Clarke Electric Cooperative, Inc, Osceola IA.

Supervised Accounting and Billing functions for a rural electric cooperative with 4,200 accounts and 35 employees.

1980 to Present, Manager of Office & Information Services, Corn Belt Energy Corporation, Bloomington, IL.

Supervises Accounting, Billing, and Information services for a rural electric cooperative that distributes electric service in 18 counties in Illinois to 26,000 accounts. The cooperative sells natural gas to members thru the Nicor Customer Select program for 4 years. Sells LP product to cooperative members through a service arrangement with various Farm Service (FS) cooperatives.

Daily responsibilities: Cash management & Short-term loan management. Review and approve to paid wholesale power contracts. Main go to person for Accounting problems and Billing problems.

Monthly responsibilities: Report to Finance Committee of the Board of Directors on Current Month Sales & Expenses and Year to Date Sales and Expenses. Answer questions on Budget variances.

Long term projects: Annual Budgets and 10 Year Financial Forecasts